

Elf Spree—2021

Nibble-a-day Elf Buffet

Four Afternoons 1:30-4:00

Monday, 8/30/21—Thursday, 9/2/21

Monday, 8/30/21 Bonny Fern Rounds: A Leprechaun Inspiration

The sweet taste of the Bonny Fern Rounds can bring a bit-of-a-tear to the eye of a reminiscing leprechaun, so similar to the taste of the dearly loved Potato Candy from their Irish homeland, it is! Elves Hilda and Chef Pepin earned high regard from the leprechaun clan with their recipe for this now Garden-wide popular treat. Each nibbler gets a free tiny mug filled with the Potato Candy recipe.

Tuesday, 8/31/21 Iggy Jumble: Traveling food

Created by the clever elf-artist, Ignacious K. Elf, this colorful fruit/nut kibble of garden goodness was named after its inventor using his popular nickname, Iggy. One of the few traveling artists in the Elf World, Ignacious pops a pouch of Jumble in his pocket nearly every time he treks. Free trek pouch like Iggy's for all snackers.

Wednesday, 9/1/21 Berry Cream, Nuts and Pitas:

Elves have reported they dream about cream, so it's not a surprise that this dreamy dessert makes them wildly happy. So happy, in fact, they've been known to leap, swirl, even hoot and warble after eating a few too many of these sweet treats. Get an Eats and Treats bracelet if you can think of another wild thing overjoyed elves may have done.

Thursday, 9/2/21 Chef Pepin's Nesters:

Chef Pepin believes being born in a kitchen was a sign he would be a great chef. Nesters is the first recipe he has named after himself. This was big news in the Garden and Chef Pepin was interviewed by Louis Elf of the Teensy Times newspaper about Nesters and what might be next for the popular Elf Chef. Read the story, answer the question, "What's next for Chef Pepin?" and win a Secret Garden magnet photo frame.
